

Bankers Hill Community Group Monthly Meeting Minutes.

Monday, November 19, 2018

Treasurer Jeanne Rawlings called the meeting to order at 6:30 p.m. The following Steering Committee members were present: Susanna Carvalho, Ann Garwood, Marion Hansen, Amie Hayes, John Lamb, Nancy Moors, and Jeanne Rawlings. Approximately 46 people attended.

BHCG announcements

Ms. Rawlings asked the group to consider how BHCG can use its funds to benefit the community (for example, a trash can for the 4th Street Bridge and adult exercise equipment for Olive Street Park).

Treasurer's report

Ms. Rawlings reported that BHCG has $4239.96 in the bank.

Featured business

Avant Garde Travel and Extraordinary Desserts were the featured businesses.

Non-agenda public comments

- Two attendees spoke against the proposed 25-story condo building at 6th and Olive.
- Peter Raymond updated the group on the Parking Committee.

Government updates

Toni Duran from Toni Atkins's office and Brittany Bailey from Chris Ward's office updated the group.

Program

- Ms. Garwood explained how adult exercise equipment could enhance Olive Street Park and encouraged attendees to consider the type of equipment they prefer.
- Jennifer Luce (Luce et Studio Architects) discussed her remodels of the Mingei Museum in Balboa Park and Extraordinary Dessert's new location in The Louie. Extraordinary Dessert's founder Karen Krasne described starting her business in her father's kitchen and turning it into two highly successful pâtisseries.

The meeting adjourned at 7:58 pm.

Respectfully submitted by Marion Hansen, Secretary.
